BYU basketballers Creig Raymond (left) and Ken James will be home for the Holidays tonight against the Seattle University Chiefs. Both Cougars are from Vancouver.

BYU Cagers Face Long Holiday Slate

by Gery Wood
Universe Sports Editor

While the majority of Brigham Young University's students will be vacationing for the next two weeks, basketball coach Stan Watts and his varsity cagers will be traveling from coast to coast, competing against some of the top hoop squads in the country.

The Cougar hoopers departed from the Salt Lake Airport yesterday for a pair of rugged encounters in the Northwest against Seattle University on Friday and Oregon State University on Saturday.

The Cougars will make it four games in six days when they return to Provo for a Tuesday clash with Loyola University of Chicago and a Wednesday contest with an Australian All-Star team.

NEW YORK BECKONS

With barely time to celebrate the Holiday season, the Mountain Cat crew departs Christmas morning for New York City for the most prestigious of all the year-end tournaments—the Holiday Festival in Madison Square Garden.

Following the three-day tourney

(Dec. 26, 28, 30), the nationally-ranked Watts aggregation makes a stop-over in Milwaukee, Wis., on Jan. 2 for a game against Marquette University.

The exhausting schedule continues as soon as the Cougars return to their home base, as Utah State's Aggies invade the Smith Fieldhouse Friday, Jan. 6, followed by a quintet from the University of Prague, Monday, Jan. 9.

The Y court will have little time in which to become re-acquainted to sleeping in their own beds, as the Cougars begin the Western Athletic Conference schedule Friday, Jan. 13, against the University of Arizona at Tucson, and then journey to Tempe, Arizona for a Jan. 14 encounter with the Arizona State University Sun Devils.

IN TOP TEN

After two weeks of casaba activity, BYU's fast-breaking, hot-shooting basketballers are ranked among the nation's top ten after convincing victories over New Mexico State (97-68), Denver Uni-

Students Go Home As Vacation Starts

The Christmas spirit is not as evident on campus this week as the "going home" spirit.

Classes officially end today for the Christmas vacation and will resume on Jan. 3, and BYU students are on the move.

Those few students who do remain at BYU for the Christmas vacation will find many facilities still open to them part-time. Church services for the 67 campus wards will be combined.

FEW REMAIN

The only students left on campus will be some foreign students, married students who have established their homes in Provo, and a few without the cash to make a long journey.

By air, bus, rail and private cars, students began leaving Thursday night, but the big migration will come this afternoon and evening at the conclusion of classes.

Students have been busy arranging rides for weeks. Airlines have been chartered to Chicago, New York, and other large distant cities. Travel agencies say about 1,000 are flying home on commercial airlines, and trains out of Provo have been booked solid. Eleven chartered buses will line up on campus Friday afternoon for the trip to Washington, Seattle, Los Angeles, San Francisco, New York, Chicago and other points.

PRIVATE CAR

The majority will travel by private automobile, and how they all get together is a marvel. For weeks there have been "ride wanted" and

"riders wanted" notices on billboards and in the Universe.

Many of the 67 campus wards will be meeting together during the holidays. Members are encouraged to note any changes in their schedules.

Bishops of the BYU First Stake have already informed their members of meeting schedule changes.

All Second Stake meetings will be held in 396 Wilkinson Center. On December 18, wards on the early schedule will meet for Priesthood and Relief Society at 8 a.m., Sunday School at 9 a.m., and Sacrament meeting at 5:15 p.m.

LATE WARDS

Late Wards will hold Priesthood and Relief Society at 8 a.m., Sunday School at 11:30 a.m., and Sacrament meeting at 7 p.m. On

Blood Drive Completed—781 Pints

BYU's semi-annual blood drive ended Thursday with a total of 781 pints donated, 19 short of the 800 pint goal set by Angel Flight and ROTC, but 181 more than that set by the Red Cross.

HOWEVER

Due to time limitations, at least 30 students were turned away, and 50 were not allowed to donate for health reasons, according to Elaine Jones, drive chairman. This would have brought the total to 861 pints.

"We were really happy with the response," Miss Jones commented. "The Red Cross was pleased and said the donations were far beyond their expectations."

TWO WINNERS

Two ties occurred in this year's competition between wards, organizations, and housing units. Norsemen and AWS Council tied for the organizations award, and 12th and 68th wards tied in the ward competition. Lucy Mack Smith Hall will receive the plaque for housing unit competition. Norsemen will be awarded the traveling trophy sometime after the holidays for accumulating the largest number of points.

The next blood drive will be sponsored in April.

Fair Weather For Travelers

Fair weather across the nation will facilitate safe travel for students during these Christmas holidays.

High temperatures range from 45 in Salt Lake and Boise, 36 in New York, 40 in Las Vegas, and 75 in Los Angeles. Lows in the valleys are 23, 32, 38 and 56. Rein has been predicted only for the northwest and eastern seaboard regions.

Weather in the Provo area will be generally fair with smoke and fog increasing in the valleys through Saturday. Little temperature change with an 80 per cent chance of sunshine and no chance of precipitation. High today 40, low tonight 20.

The Big Christmas Exodus Begins

Within 21 hours the majority of the students will leave campus for their Christmas holidays, leaving it quiet and somewhat deserted.

The Daily Universe staff, in this the final issue to be published until Jan. 3, wants to wish all faculty, staff, and students a Merry Christmas and pleasant holiday season.

No doubt 1966 has been a hectic but important year in everyone's life. And we can certainly look forward to some interesting things in 1967.

We'd like to make two points that seem to need emphasis before the Christmas exodus begins.

The first concerns the problem of enforcement of "no slacks" dress standards throughout the Wilkinson Center.

In the Executive Council meeting Wednesday night, Student Coordinator Lyle Curtis pointed out that the original policy of no slacks "anywhere" in the Wilkinson Center was made by committee of student officers several years ago.

Though there seems to be some confusion as to who exactly now has the authority to set and maintain that dress policy, we hope that students will have the same negative to either change or continue a policy that students themselves set up.

The logical body to represent students in this policy would seem to be The Executive Council. We hope they will be afforded that prerogative.

The second point concerns basketball tickets. Student Athletic Board Chairman John Hawkins informs us that tickets for basketball games during the holidays will be issued THE DAY of the game beginning at 5:30 p.m. on first-come, first-served basis. No passes will be issued, just tickets.

He says there are plenty of tickets available and urges all students to make it to the games. We would endorse his encouragement.

It'll be a good chance to get some good seats—one that might not be so easy once all the students come back after the holidays.

Question asked from the floor during question and answer session following speech delivered by Dr. Max Rafferty before the Utah Forum for the American Man.

"Is the Brigham Young University academically inferior?" The following is Dr. Rafferty's answer.

"Brigham Young—I'm no authority on Brigham Young, heaven knows. I've visited that campus twice in the last six months and spoke to the students at their request. But almost anyone here, including the distinguished President, could give you infinitely more about it than I can. As an outsider, it would be presumptuous and highly stupid of me to come in and tell you about your own university.

"But I can say this, I visited Brigham Young quite extensively during the three days that I was there. I saw, and I talked to dozens of its professors and scores of its students on campus, and I have visited its classrooms and I have seen its facilities, and I am more impressed with Brigham Young than I am with any other university that I have visited in the last five years (applause).

"And I'm not saying that because some of our situations have the Apophysis, they go. They are the same on the sun which is a universe ham Young. It is scholarly institution by business. It is, at least, from what we composed for you know what are there, sometimes a little sacrifice to get them there, nonsense, business attitude at want to get out of Earth this I like, education. If it is so horribly a days, that to was it away and to the decision a call to the Berkeley are doing sleep tonight, is me (applause).

"It is too precious to fool around what I'm trying to And I didn't sit around at Brigham (applause)."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor's Note: Letters to the editor should be double-spaced typewritten on a 40-space line and should be 100 words or less. Letters should be submitted to the Editor's Office, Fifth Floor of the Wilkinson Center.

SOLVED

Dear Editor:

By Jove, I think I've solved the problem of dress standards at BYU. Just recently I have returned from London, England. There they have the system that I think could be used here effectively.

Everyone here would be required to buy BYU uniforms. This would consist of: Freshman boys would wear short pants (light blue), knee length socks (dark blue), light blue shirts, dark blue ties with white stripes, dark blue blazers, and a dark blue hat to match the blazers. Freshman girls would wear the same except for light blue skirts.

All upper class would wear long pants, no hats; the girls no hats.

The uniforms would be made by BYU so that the skirts would be the proper length and the trousers not too tapered. Everyone would be required to purchase at least two complete uniforms.

Oh, before I forget, the crest on the blazer would read "Morality Forever."

Dean Suffers Attack

Rudger H. Walker, Dean of the College of Biological and Agricultural sciences, suffered a heart attack Monday, Dec. 5. According to his secretary, Valene Anderson, he felt pain about 8:15 in the morning and went home. At 10:00 a.m. she was notified of the Dean's condition.

Upon arriving at the Utah Valley Hospital he was put in intensive care for several days and was later moved to a private room where he is now recuperating.

He is reported as doing well although he will have to remain in the hospital until Christmas when he will be released for a months rest at his home. It is expected that he will be able to resume his activities as Dean for Spring Semester.

Wednesday, but we couldn't let this error go uncorrected.

According to his secretary he has suffered no pain while in the hospital.

A cardiograph indicated that there has been slight damage to the interior portion of the heart.

During the Dean's absence Dr. Don H. Larsen, chairman of the bacteriology department, will be the acting dean. He has been acting dean on two previous occasions when the Dean had to be out of town with his extensive schedule.

Dean Walker has many other responsibilities demanding his time other than his activities as dean. He serves on the General Church Welfare Committee which takes him as far away at England on weekends attending regional welfare meetings in connection with quarterly conferences. Most of his assignments, however, keep him in the U.S.

He is working with Paul Felt on an Indian program in connection with the agriculture department.

Serving as a member of the board of directors for the American University of Beirut, Beirut, Lebanon he has been in West Asia this last year.

In his responsibilities as dean he is working to complete the plans and receive approval for a new life science building.

Former BYU Student To Write in Asia

by Dennis Reed

For most of Gary's tour of duty in Vietnam is just a grim, unpleasant job that is to be done. But for Gary Jacobson, former BYU student, it will be something unique—if it's any consolation.

Gary, an advertising-public relations major at BYU, will be a special correspondent for the Daily Universe reporting his experiences as a soldier in Vietnam.

Not that it was planned that way, because Gary didn't have any intention of going to the school when he dropped out of period when he dropped out of school last Spring Semester to work in Salt Lake City.

There came the traditional "greetings" from Uncle Sam inviting him to report for his physical. He passed, and two weeks later was ordered to report for active duty.

After first reporting to his local selective service board in his home town, Oklahoma City, Okla., he was sent to Fort Polk, La., for basic training. He also took several weeks advanced infantry training there.

Special search and seizure techniques were taught by Vietnam veterans. Mock Vietnamese villages were set up and the soldiers drilled in methods of ferreting out Viet Cong.

Experience was also gained in the use of the M-16 and M-14 rifles, machine guns, grenade launchers, mortars, and anti-tank weapons.

Although he does not know what his exact job will be when he gets to Vietnam, it's pretty certain he'll be a foot soldier with an infantry unit. Gary leaves for Vietnam Jan. 6.

GARY SAYS

"Well, I can't say I'm excited about going, but I love my country and I have a responsibility to help defend it. I'm willing to go where I'm sent." Gary's younger brother Fred, 21, is a Marine stationed at Okinawa. This will be the second time Gary has been asked to serve

Counsels Members Return To Their Jobs

—Jailbound Jimmy Hoffa, 33, and Photographer Alvin Quin, 43, both of the Associated Press, were pulled from their car and beaten when they stopped to photograph some idled trucks. Quin and Hoffa said 10 to 15 Teamsters members attacked them. Neither was seriously hurt.

Hoffa's 90-minute speech was interrupted by cheers, applause and howling. He spent an hour recounting his trial and troubles with the Government. He mentioned the name of Robert F. Kennedy, now a New York Senator but formerly U.S. Attorney General, and the vast convention hall rocked with jeers and boos.

He said the Federal Government used "stool pigeons" and "paid informers" to trap him during the trials in Chattanooga and Nashville, Tenn. He repeated accusations that jurors were plied with favors including party gifts.

Cartoon Entrepreneur Dies

Hollywood (UPI)—Walt Disney, the greatest showman since P. T. Barnum, died Thursday of acute circulatory failure. The 65-year-old entrepreneur left as his legacy to the world; Disneyland, fabulous cartoon characters such as Mickey Mouse and Donald Duck, and universally acclaimed motion pictures.

He died at midmorning in St. Joseph hospital in nearby Burbank, where his left lung was removed last Nov. 21 after doctors discovered a tumor which had caused an abscess. It was not disclosed whether the tumor was malignant. A cardiologist was at Disney's bedside when he succumbed.

The hospital in which Disney passed away is located across the street from the movie studio he founded.

Disney's death shocked the world.

Before noon, messages of condolence poured into Hollywood from around the globe.

Los Angeles county supervisors immediately ordered all flags on county buildings lowered to half-staff in tribute to him. Flags also were lowered at Disneyland and at Walt Disney High School in Anaheim and elsewhere in the Orange County city.

One of the most beloved and honored figures of the 20th century, Disney climbed the heights as a cartoonist, amusement park operator and one of the last of Hollywood's great movie moguls.

His world-wide awards, honors and citations filled 29 typewritten pages and totaled about 700, including 29 Oscars, four Emmys, the Irving Thaberg award, the Presidential Freedom Medal and the French Legion of Honor.

Since 1937, when "Snow White And The Seven Dwarfs" flashed on the silver screen, Disney produced nearly 160 feature-length pictures, including such classics as "Pinocchio," "Cinderella," "Treasure Island," "Alice In Wonderland," "Peter Pan," "Robin Hood," "Sleeping Beauty," "Kidnapped," "Swiss Family Robinson," "Pollyanna" and "Mary Poppins."

UNKNOWN BECAME STAR

About 10 years ago, Disney started a relatively unknown actor named Fess Parker in two frontier epics—"Davy Crockett, King of the Wild Frontier" and "Davy Crockett and the River Pirates." They delighted millions of youngsters and started a Davy Crockett merchandising boom.

versity (87-66), and St. Mary's College (108-57).

All three of the Cougar triumphs were at home, where the Pumas almost never lose.

"The games we have coming up on the road," says Coach Watts, "will be a good test for us."

"Our boys will gain a good deal of confidence if we can win these two against Seattle and Oregon State," he added.

SAME LINEUP

The Seattle Chieftains have the same starting five in 1966 that downed the Texas Western Miners last year—a feat no one else was able to accomplish. The Chieftains are rated 29th in the nation at this time.

The OSU Beavers are "rebuilding" this season, but are particularly tough to beat on their home hardwood.

Though Chicago's Loyola University fell to small college North Dakota Wednesday night, the 10th-ranked Sioux squad is one of the highly regarded quints in the country.

Australia's touring All-Stars have a veteran team and could give the BYU hoop stars a tough time.

PROBABLE FAVORITES

On the basis of their high ranking in the press polls, the Cougars will probably be the favorite to take the championship of the Holiday Festival tournament. The other teams entered in the tourney are: Northwestern, Duquesne, Rhode Island, St. Bonaventure, St. John's, St. Joseph's, and Providence.

Don't Forget Skates

According to the Office of Special Courses, an ice skating class will be offered next semester on Saturdays from Feb. 4 to March 25 from 9 to 10 a.m. and every Wednesday night from 6:30 to 7:30, from Feb. 1 to March 22.

The classes will be held at the Winter Gardens in Provo and students interested in the classes are reminded to bring their skates with them after the Holidays.

First Y Swim Meet...

Cougars Face Red Raider

by Dennis Bitten
Universe Sportswriter

BYU initiates its competitive swimming season tonight at 8 against Texas Tech.

The Cougar tankers will be understaffed for this and the next meet. The Western Athletic Conference freshman non-eligibility rule prevents freshman swim team members from competing until Jan. 1. After the first of the year the Y swimmers will have the depth they need to win meets.

Because of the WAC ruling, BYU will have less than a dozen swimmers able to compete with the Red Raiders traveling squad.

Competitive swimming rules restrict teams to two entrants per event. The meet tonight will have nine separate events and the Texas Tech team is expected to bring a full 18 member squad.

KING MEYRING

The Cougars will rely on Dennis Meyring, holder of three WAC titles, and Doug Regan, who holds one WAC record, to bring in points against the strong Texans.

Meyring's specialties are the 200 yard butterfly and the 400 yard individual medley. Regan competes in the 50 to 100 yard freestyle.

Another returning letterman Coach Walt Cryer hopes will bring points in for the team is Grant Price, a sophomore from Las Vegas, Nev. Price swims backstroke and the individual medley.

Three junior college transfers will help the returning lettermen along. Ron Burton, a junior from Foodhill JC, will swim on the 800 yard freestyle relay team and swim individual butterfly events.

Dave Vandershaft, a sophomore from American River Junior College, will swim distance for the Cougars. He'll move out in the 200, 500 and 1850 yard freestyle events.

Steve Schroeter will give much needed strength in the breaststroke events. This was one of the weak areas for the Cougars last year in WAC competition.

DIVERS LIMITED

The diving squad, coached by Rollie Bestor, boasts a half dozen good divers but competitive rulings will limit tonight representatives.

Bestor is going with Wiley and Mike Tovey.

Students will be at the meet with showing cards. The general admission at $1 per adult and 50c each. Tickets will be sold.

The BYU swim team is to Santa Barbara, Dec. 31 meet, the start of the season under ability ruling.

Later on in the season swimmers will such swimming power of Wyoming, Utah, Colorado State, and BYU.

Clock's Fault

For a while there it looked as if a world 800-meter relay record had been cracked by a club team in Australia, but the Yanks can rest easily. The Sydney team was clocked in a slow 1:51.2, which didn't sound right to officials so the clockers said they must have made a 30-second error and made it 1:21.2. Now they have to go through the motions of presenting that "record" for adoption and the embarrassment of being laughed out of court.

James' Wife Aussie At Heart

by Nancy Twitty

A unique basketball game will be played Dec. 21 when BYU hosts Australia on the Cougar Court.

Not only will the game be unique in that the Australian team is traveling over 8,000 miles to meet the Blue and Whites, but it will be special interest to one basketball fan—a girl who can't decide which team to support. She is Rhonda James, wife of Cougar basketball Ken James.

Rhonda hails from Melbourne, Australia. She went to school with many of the members of the team. "We're all good friends," she admits. "I grew up with them."

In fact, Rhonda's father coached the boys at one time. The Australian coach was the assistant Olympic coach for the Melbourne team, and Rhonda's father was his assistant. The two men were the ones who pioneered the yuletide game with the Cougars.

"Actually," Mrs. James states, "even though Australia is the underdog, I think the score will be a lot closer than most people think. Australia will get its share of baskets."

Because of this, the ages of the Australian All-Star group range from around 20 up to 30 years.

"Some of the older players on the team," inserts Rhonda, "are more like semi-professionals."

Rhonda graduated from BYU with a major in special education. She is presently teaching a group of retarded children daily in the Harris Fine Arts Center.

She married Cougar guard Ken James almost one and a half years ago. Rhonda met Ken while she was dating his roommate, the former BYU basketball Jeff Cogdon,

Almost...

Big Eight Conference figures show how tight the 1966 football title chase actually was. With six more points in the right spot, Colorado could have been undisputed champ over Nebraska or six for Oklahoma would have given the Sooners a championship tie with the Cornhuskers. But "it's" don't count.

The AMS is still coordinating rides for Christmas vacation. Especially needed are students with cars who need passengers. Contact the AMS on fourth floor Wilkinson Center.

TUTORING SERVICE

Students who need extra help in some of their classes may apply for a tutor in A-242 Snoot Administration Bldg., Ext. 3316. The staff of 124 tutors has been approved by department chairmen.

CHESS TEAM

BYU's Chess Team will attend the National-International Collegiate Chess Finals at Penn State December 28 through 30, where they will be in competition with teams from approximately 30 other colleges and universities including Harvard, Stanford, Purdue and UCLA. Those attending are Scott Zimmerman, John Stremel, Harold Blac, Jim Kirkwood, Lamar Walker, and Larry Frisbey. Winning team of the tournament will be declared U.S. Collegiate Chess Champion.

KBYU To Air Yule Program

The BYU Broadcast Services had an "excellent response" this week from the ABC and Intermetropolitan Network stations carrying "Speaking of Music." Over 70 per cent of the total number of network affiliates are airing the 26 week "good music" series. Watch your area listings for time and station.

BYU SHOW

Moreover, a TV production, the "BYU Christmas Show" has been well received by TV stations from Miami to Montana. This special show will be presented Friday and Saturday evenings at 8 p.m. on Channel 11.

On Wednesday evening at 7:30, Channel 11 will present a special program live from the Valley Music Hall featuring the cast of "Peter Pan" and those participating in a special performance for the crippled children of Utah.

RELIGIOUS THEME

Immediately following this program, Dr. Chauncey Riddle of the College of Religious Instruction will carry the Christmas theme into the television offerings, the "Night Before Christmas" Santa et al will each night of the week. In addition to these Christmas prime viewing hours.

This is your chance,
Student #7026941.
Drink Sprite and be somebody.

MR. BIG

Take heart. Take a drink.
Then take a bottle of Sprite from the nearest pop machine.

Suddenly it's in your hand. Cold.
Biting. Tart and tingling. You cackle friendly and rub your hands together. (You should; they're probably chilled to the bone by now.)

You tear off to a corner, alone, but within earshot of your fellows.

And then? And then? And then you unleash it.
SPRITE! It fizzles! It roars! It bubbles with good cheer!

Heads turn. Whispers. "Who's that strangely fascinating student with the arch smile. And what's in that curious green bottle that's making such a racket?"

And you're arrived! The distinctive taste and ebullient character of Sprite has set you apart.
You're somebody, uh...uh, whoever-you-are.

SPRITE IS A REG. U.S. TRADE MARK

SPRITE, SO TART AND TINGLING, WE JUST COULDN'T KEEP IT QUIET.

"Midday" closed it's '65-66' season
ry with the annual Christmas Con-the Harris Fine Arts Center. Over 1,000 musicians performed on the main floor and the two balconies. The gallery's only light was strings of green and blue lights.
